

Scheme of the Sports Beam

The upper plane of the beam and the ramps shall not be painted. The beam supports must be free of sharp corners and protrusions. The supports are recommended to be collapsible, which allows for changing the height of the apparatus for competitions among athletes of different age groups. See the detailed description of design features in clause 5.2.5. of the Rules.

